Family Farm Day 2020 Goes Online!

"With the necessity of cancelling Family Farm Day this year, we created an opportunity to keep farms and farmers' markets foremost in the public eye, to promote awareness of agriculture, and to help farms build stronger customer bases," said David Cox, CCE Ag and Hort Program Leader. "Since COVID-19 hit hard in March, customer interest in our local food supply has grown considerably. Farms and farmers' markets have been selling most everything produced - sales are expected to be robust for the season."

"People are coming every day to 'U-pick' whatever I have," said Willy Bruneau, Middlefield Orchards. "It's great for them and for our business... I love it!"

As a result of the confluence of these two forces - food availability during a pandemic and being unable to offer farm tours as in past years - CCE decided to produce an Online Farm Listing, showing participating farms with products offered and their contact information.

"We're promoting farm product sales ONLY this year, not farm visits, encouraging customers to initiate the contact for farm product purchasing," Cox added. We're using social media to promote the listing and keep it refresh during the season."
View the complete Online Farm Listing at www.FamilyFarmDay.org. For more information, contact CCE Schoharie and Otsego Counties at 518.234.4303 (x111), or email at schoharie@cornell.edu. Cornell Cooperative Extension provides equal program and employment opportunities.

Delgado Visits
Brown's Pharmacy and Small Businesses in Deposit

U.S. Representative Antonio Delgado (NY-19) and Deposit Chamber of Commerce President Nick Barone visited Brown's Pharmacy Aug. 25 and met with the new owner to learn about how the coronavirus pandemic is impacting a small, local pharmacy. The Congressman then stopped by Hartz Plumbing and Sidney Flowers of Deposit, which are located in the same building.

"Earlier this year, I had the pleasure of joining the Deposit Chamber of Commerce at their annual awards dinner and helping to present the 'Business of the Year' award to Brown's Pharmacy, a Deposit institution for 173 years. Now, as our businesses are facing new challenges, it is more important than ever to make sure business owners and employees in every corner of our district feel heard and represented. This afternoon, I met with the new owner of Brown's Pharmacy and learned more about how they're working to navigate through COVID-19 and respond to the health needs in our community," said Rep. Delgado.

In January, Rep. Delgado attended the Deposit Chamber of Commerce annual awards dinner where he delivered remarks on his work to advocate for rural communities and small businesses during his first year in Congress. Rep. Delgado and Chamber President Nick Barone then presented the Business of the Year award to Brown's Pharmacy.

As a member of the House Committee on Small Business, Rep. Delgado has worked to elevate the voices of small businesses across New York's 19th Congressional District during the COVID-19 pandemic. In March, Rep. Delgado introduced the Small Business Repayment Relief Act, to cover six months of loan payments for all qualified SBA loans. This was signed into law as part of the bipartisan CARES Act. Rep. Delgado also voted for the Paycheck Protection Program Flexibility Act, signed into law on June 5.

Additionally, Rep. Delgado introduced the Prioritized Paycheck Protection Program (P4) Act that would allow smaller businesses, with significant losses due to COVID-19, to receive a second forgivable PPP loan. The Congressman also helped introduce the bipartisan Small Business PPE Tax Credit Act. This bill would provide a tax credit of up to $25,000 to help small businesses offset the cost of PPE, including installing plexiglass and purchasing masks to protect their employees and customers.

invited to bring a bag lunch to enjoy outdoors.

The District #10 school was built of local stone in 1820 on property deeded to the Town of Middletown by John and Anna Van Wagoner. It replaced a log school that had existed for several years, serving the children of Middletown's earliest settlers.

By the late 1850s the school was in disrepair. The building was reconstructed in 1862 using the same stones.

In the decades that followed, hundreds of students attended grades one through eight there. The building was also used for church services, and in later years as a polling place. It was closed in 1940 when students began attending class at the new Margaretville Central School.

New York City condemned the school along with other properties in the buffer zone of the Pepacton Reservoir in the 1950s but public sentiment helped preserve it. It is now a protected historic site owned by the town and maintained by an independent Stone School House Association. For more information, contact Association President Bill Taylor, wtaylor@catskill.net, 845-586-3994.

account is encouraged to call the phone number provided on their bill. The companies also offered customers some additional helpful tips:

- The companies will never demand customers to purchase debit cards such as Green Dot cards to make payments. NYSEG and RG&E accept a variety of payment methods, and Customer Care representatives will work with individual customers to help them pay down outstanding balances and maintain service.
- NYSEG and RG&E have temporarily suspended disconnections related to non-payment. Therefore, any call threatening disconnection is a sure sign of a scam.

- If unsure of the identity of the caller, ask for the last five digits of the account. If they do not have this information, hang up and alert local authorities. Never give out personal or account information to a caller.
- NYSEG and RG&E employees and contractors carry company-issued photo ID with a unique employee number. Ask for ID before providing personal or account information or granting access to your property. If you are not certain, call to confirm using the number on your bill or the company's website.

- Be suspicious of unexpected emails from NYSEG or RG&E, especially if you're not an eBill customer, and think twice before clicking links. If you're not certain, you can make credit card payments, check balances and find other information at nyseg.com and rge.com.
- When making a payment by phone, always use company phone numbers: NYSEG customers can call 800.600.2275. RG&E customers can call 800.295.7323.
