Birds and Beans: Simple Ways To Save Migratory Birds

Join Delaware-Otsego Audubon Society on Friday, April 16 at 7:30 p.m. on Zoom for program about bird migration with Scott Weidensaul.

The populations of many migratory birds are in drastic decline, however, there are many things people can do to save them. During the program, naturalist and author Weidensaul will explore the wonder and mechanics of migration, and the simple, effective ways we can preserve birds, from what we plant in our gardens to what we pour into our morning mug of coffee.

This is a free program. Pre-Registration is required. Registration Information can be found at the DOAS Website at https:// doas.us/event/birdsbeans-save-birds/.

Weidensaul is the author of more than two dozen books on natural history, including the Pulitzer Prize finalist "Living on the Wind." His newest book, "A World of Wings" about global migration, will be released in March 2021. Weidensaul is a contributing editor for Audubon, a columnist for Bird Watcher's Digest and writes for a variety of other publications, including Living Bird. He is also an active field researcher, studying saw-whet owl migration for more than two decades, as well as winter hummingbirds, bird migration in Alaska, and the winter movements of snowy owls through Project SNOWstorm, which he co-founded.

House Votes to Send Rep. Delgado Formula for Direct Local Aid to President Biden's Desk

The House voted to pass the American Rescue Plan and send the legislation to President Joe Biden March 10. The American Rescue Plan includes U.S. Representative Antonio Delgado's (NY-19) bill, the Direct Support for Communities Act, which establishes a formula for local aid that delivers $130.2 billion to counties and municipalities across the United States. The formula will bring over $400 million directly to local governments in New York's 19th Congressional District. The American Rescue Plan will also deliver millions more to Rep. Delgado's district through direct stimulus checks, the Paycheck Protection Program, agricultural assistance, child tax credits, restaurant relief, rural broadband funding, and more.

"The American Rescue Plan will get shots in residents' arms, money in pockets, kids in school, open signs on Main Street, and dollars directly to local governments," said Rep. Delgado. "Last week, I met with over 100 local officials who desperately need federal support. Today, I am honored and humbled that my bill to deliver this long overdue funding to counties, cities, towns, and villages is headed to the president's desk along with meaningful relief for families, farmers, small business owners, students, school districts, and veterans. I am proud to have advocated for our local leaders in Washington and played an instrumental role in the crafting of the American Rescue Plan."

Under Rep. Delgado's Direct Support for Communities Act formula, and according to House Committee on Oversight estimates, NY-19 towns and villages would get over $160 million in relief. Additionally, NY-19 counties would receive an estimated:

• Broome County: $36,940,000

• Columbia County: $11,530,000

• Delaware County: $8,560,000

• Dutchess County: $57,060,000

• Greene County: $9,015,000

• Montgomery County: $9,550,000

• Otsego County: $11,540,000

• Rensselaer County: $30,780,000

• Schoharie County: $6,010,000

• Sullivan County: $14,630,000

• Ulster County: $34,440,000.

The American Rescue

Plan also delivers:

$1,400 direct stimulus checksAn increase in the Child Tax Credit to $3,000 per child and $3,600 for a child under age 6

• $20 billion to establish a national COVID-19 Vaccination Program

$130 billion to help

Rep. Delgado Introduces Bipartisan Whole Milk for Healthy Kids Act

U.S. Representatives Antonio Delgado (NY-19) and Glenn 'GT' Thompson (PA-15) introduced the bipartisan Whole Milk for Healthy Kids Act of 2021, which allows for unflavored and flavored whole milk to be offered in school cafeterias.

"The Whole Milk for Healthy Kids Act will help young people maintain a healthy diet while supporting our upstate dairy farmers and processors," said Rep. Delgado. "I am proud to lead this bipartisan effort to provide more choices for healthy and nutritious milk in schools. This legislation is good > including those of public health concern. The Dietary Guidelines Advisory Committee also found that 79 percent of 9-13-yearolds don't meet the recommended intake for dairy. We commend Representative Antonio Delgado (D-NY) for introducing the bipartisan Whole Milk for Healthy Kids Act. Representative Delgado is a strong advocate for policies to help children obtain the nutritional benefits that are vital to a healthy eating pattern, and allowing schools to offer whole milk provides a valuable way to do that," said Jim Mulhern, president and CEO of the National Milk Producers Federation. "This bill will help provide our children the nutrition they need to lead healthy lives." "Thank you to Representatives Glenn Thompson (PA-15) and Antonio Delgado (NY-19) for their leadership on this bill to allow schools more flexibility in offering the wholesome milk varieties that children and teens enjoy at home. Expanding milk options in schools helps ensure students get the 11 essential nutrients daily that only milk provides, including protein, calcium, vitamin D, vitamin A, niacin, vitamin B12, riboflavin, and potassium," said Michael Dykes, D.V.M., president and CEO of IDFA. Background on Milk in Schools: • In 2010, Congress passed the Healthy, Hunger-Free Kids Act which amended nutrition standards in the School Lunch Program. Among the changes, the law mandated that flavored milk must be fat free within the program. • In May of 2017, the USDA announced a rule that allowed schools to receive waivers for low-fat (1%) flavored milk, rather than only fat-free. • The Whole Milk for Healthy Kids Act builds upon this rule to ensure that schools can also serve unflavored and flavored whole milk. This will provide schools with more options and flexibility in providing nutritious milk.

for young people and good for our dairy producers in today's tough farm economy."

"My family and I take great pride in producing healthy, nutritious milk, which is a vital source of kev nutrients of public health concern such as calcium, potassium, and vitamin D. Congressman Antonio Delgado has been a strong advocate for Upstate New York dairy farmers as a member of the House Agriculture Committee," said Eric Ooms, Valatie, NY dairy farmer. "I am grateful to Congressman Delgado for leading this bipartisan legislative effort to give our schools the flexibility to serve children the nutritious dairy that will help them to grow and stay healthy."

"Milk provides nine essential nutrients as well as a great deal of long-term health benefits. Due to the baseless demonization of milk over the years, we've lost nearly an entire generation of milk drinkers, and these young people are missing out on the benefits of whole milk," said Rep. Thompson. "It is my hope the Whole Milk for Healthy Kids Act will give children a wide variety of milk options and bolster milk consumption – a win-win for growing children and America's dairy farmers."

"The recently updated Dietary Guidelines for Americans reaffirmed dairy's central role in providing essential nutrients,

Drive Through Easter Egg Hunt

The Central Delaware Trinity Covenant will have a drive through Easter egg hunt on Saturday, April 3, from 1-2 p.m. at the DeLancey United Presbyterian Church, 444 County Highway 2, DeLancey.

Due to COVID-19, kids 2 and older won't be able to search for eggs in the church or on church grounds, but instead will receive a decorated paper egg with a prize written on the back when their chauffeur pulls their car into the church's driveway.

There will be two other stops around the horseshoe driveway - one to get a bag of small prizes and candy and the other for kids to redeem their egg for their prize.

The church would like to thank Girl Scout troop 60673 for coloring the eggs for the hunt.

In addition to the Easter egg hunt, there will be a Maundy Thursday service at the DeLancey church on April 1 at 7 p.m.

Easter Sunday service will be held at 11 a.m. in the DeLancey church. Masks and social distancing guidelines will be in place.

baseball fans back to Cooperstown for Induction Weekend, but with the continuing uncertainties created by COVID-19, the Board of Directors has decided not to hold Induction Weekend ceremonies at the traditional Clark Sports Center location. We have prepared alternative plans to conduct our annual Awards Presentation and Induction Ceremony as television events taking place indoors and adhering to all of the required New York State guidelines."

The Hall of Fame's 2021 Induction Ceremony will honor the members of the Class of 2020: Derek Jeter, Marvin Miller, Ted Simmons and Larry Walker. Being honored during the Awards Presentation will be 2021 Ford C. Frick Award winner for broadcasting excellence, Al Michaels, and the 2020 Frick Award winner, Ken Harrelson; the 2021 Baseball Writers' Association of America Career Excellence Award winner, Dick Kaegel, and the 2020 BBWAA Career Excellence Award winner, Nick Cafardo; and the 2020 Buck O'Neil Lifetime Achievement Award winner, David Montgomery.

For decades, the Induction Ceremony has been held as an unticketed event, free and open to all fans. Since 1992, the Induction Ceremony has been held on the grounds of the Clark Sports Center, with estimated crowds approaching and surpassing 50,000 at five of the last six ceremonies from 2014-2019. The second-largest crowd on record – an estimated 55,000 people – attended the Hall of Fame's last Induction Ceremony, which took place on July 21, 2019. Last year's cancellation marked the first time the Hall of Fame did not hold an Induction Ceremony in Cooperstown since 1960.

The National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum remains open daily from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. A comprehensive health and safety plan for the Museum was developed and has been implemented in accordance with guidelines provided by the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention and New York State, and reviewed by a certified Industrial Hygiene Technician, to ensure cleanliness, physical distancing and reduced contact for visitors and staff. More information about visiting the Hall of Fame can be found at baseballhall.org/reopening.
